

Natalia Dinsel-Bondarenko is a self-taught abstract artist who currently lives and works in Hamburg. The artist's second career is in the field of Psychology and her intuitive art is an expression of her understanding of the total network in life. Her pictures are very personal and the use color and intuitive gestures aim at directing your thoughts and feelings from the brush to the canvas.

Real Illusions

Acrylic and spray paint on canvas 100 x 80 cm

"My art is the expression of my life experiences, my inner processes, and my understanding of the total interconnectedness in life. In my work, I explore the nature of human beings, our pursuit of happiness and the philosophical view on life in general. The positive vibrations behind my paintings should inspire the viewer to move forward and look beyond the horizon, invite self-reflection, and encourage to dream big."
